Dare . Participate . Win

The Official Unwanted Witness Privacy Moot Competition

RULES

21st - 22nd September, 2023

Preamble

Unwanted Witness (UW) inspires to enrich the understanding of Data Protection and Privacy and create awareness among young lawyers. In an effort to achieve such aims, the UW organizes the UW Privacy Moot Court Competition annually. To ensure the optimal running of the Competition, the Unwanted Witness has adopted the following Rules:

Chapter I: General Rules

Art. 1 - Object

- a. The present rules ("Rules") govern the Unwanted Witness Privacy Moot Court Competition (hereinafter "the Competition"), organized by Unwanted Witness (hereinafter "the Secretariat").
- b. The Secretariat has the overall responsibility of the organisation of the competition
- c. The Secretariat's Office is located at Plot No.26, Sentema Road, P.O Box 71314, Clock Tower, Kampala, Uganda; Mob: +256-414 697635; Email: info@unwantedwitness.org
- d. All materials developed by the Secretariat for the Competition, including, without limitation, the Official Rules and the Competition Problem, are the sole property of Unwanted Witness. These materials may not be reproduced for any purpose other than participation in or administration of the Competition without the express and prior written consent of Unwanted Witness. In addition, all Memorials become the sole property of Unwanted Witness, and may not be republished without its express consent.

Art. 2 - Subject

- a. All teams participating in the Competition are presumed to have knowledge of and shall be subject to these Rules.

Art. 3 - Interpretation of the Rules

- a. The Secretariat has the authority to interpret and amend the provisions contained in the Rules.

b. The Secretariat reserves the right to make changes at any time before the commencement of the Preliminary Round when necessary. Any changes made will be communicated to the participating teams on the moot website (www.uwmoot.com).

Art. 4 - Aim of the Competition

The Competition aims to encourage university law students to improve their knowledge of data protection and privacy in practice and its jurisprudence, through arguing a hypothetical case. In addition, the Competition provides participants with the opportunity to become familiar with the internationally set standards of data protection and privacy.

Art. 5 - Eligibility

- a. The Competition is open to all law students, enrolled in an accredited university (hereinafter “university”) in Uganda, provided that (i) the student is not practicing as a lawyer and (ii) the student has not previously participated in the oral rounds of the Competition.
- b. Each campus is eligible to register only one (1) team for this Competition.
- c. Only actively enrolled students in a bachelor of Law program in an accredited university in Uganda are eligible to participate.
- d. It is each team’s responsibility to ensure that its team members have a level of legal knowledge suitable for the Competition.
- e. Students admitted to practice, including by having taken and passed the bar exam, are prohibited to participate.
- f. Institutions are encouraged to ensure diversity and affirmative action when selecting teams.

Art. 6 - Competition Format

- a) Each team shall consist of three (3) persons: two (2) of whom are mooters, and one (1) coach. The amount of Team Representatives may never exceed three (3) at any moment in the Competition.
- b) Any changes in the team composition as it was at registration, must be submitted in writing on or before 23:59 Hours 25th August, 2023. Any request for changes in the team composition after this time frame shall be rejected. However, the Secretariat reserves the right to allow changes in team composition after this deadline in consideration of exceptional circumstances, or in the interests or fairness of the Competition.
- c) The Coach, or a team member appointed by the team, represents both the university and the team before the Secretariat.

Chapter II: Administrative Provisions

Art. 7 - Team Registration

- a. Each team can register via the Secretariat’s Competition website (www.unwantedwitness.org). The deadline for registration is on or before 23:59 Hours 7th April, 2023.

- b. Ladies: Black formal coat, white shirt, Black Tie, Black formal trouser and Black formal shoes. Black formal coat, white shirt, Black Tie, Black Executive Skirt and Black formal shoes.

Art. 9 - Team Identification

- a. In the interest of fairness and objectivity, each team shall be assigned a team code upon their registration. The team code is given to protect the anonymity of the teams and to ensure no prejudice or bias is shown in the assessment of the memorials.
- b. This code will be emailed to each team by the Secretariat.
- c. This code becomes the team's identifier throughout the Competition.

Art. 10- Moot Case Publication

- a. The annual Unwanted Witness Privacy Moot Court Competition Case is a hypothetical law problem, which is pleaded during each season's Competition. It is prepared yearly by law experts upon the invitation of the Secretariat.
- b. The Secretariat shall invite a duly qualified person to draft the Case and will have no involvement in the drafting. The author of the Case will remain anonymous.
- c. The Competition case (hereinafter: "the Case") will be made publicly available on the Secretariat's website; www.uwmoot.org on 2nd March, 2023
- d. The deadline for each team to submit any questions or requests for clarifications regarding the Case is on or before 23:59 Hours 17th March, 2023. Any questions or requests for clarification submitted after this deadline will not be taken into account.

Chapter III: Competition Structure

Art. 11 - Structure

- a. The Competition shall have two (2) consecutive phases, each independently graded: a written round (Memorials) and an oral round (Hearings). After the first oral round (Preliminary Round), a Semi-Final Round, and a Final Round will take place consecutively.
- b. Each team shall address the Case in the roles of the Applicant Counsel and Counsel for the Respondent, and shall submit one Memorial per role.
- c. Each team shall participate in two (2) oral rounds before the Bench in the roles of Applicant Counsel and Respondent Counsel. (Once per role.)
- d. The Memorials and Hearings shall reflect a deep knowledge of the Data Protection and Privacy Act, as well as of International Data Protection and Privacy law and Standards.
- e. Teams with the top cumulative scores will advance to the knockout advanced rounds.

Art. 12 - Preliminary Round

- a. The written and oral phase of the Preliminary-Round are independently assessed. The sum of the scores obtained in both phases after the deduction of any penalty points will qualify the best teams for the Semi-Final Rounds. Both phases, the written and oral round, count for 50% of the total score each. In the event of a tie, the winning team will be determined based on the teams' overall memorial scores and further evaluation by the judges, following which the decision shall be final.
- b. The Semi-Final Round will consist of an oral phase only.
- c. To decide which team to verse, designated team members of the qualified teams will select one envelope out of envelopes provided by the Secretariat. Every envelope will contain a letter. The letter mentioned in the envelope the designated team member draws, is the will indicate which team they will be playing in the Preliminary-Final Round.
- d. The team which will argue as Applicant or Respondent shall be determined by a coin toss. The winner of the coin toss shall be given the opportunity to choose their side.
- e. The top four (4) teams of the preliminary rounds, based on their aggregate scores in the oral arguments and their Memorials, shall advance to the Semi-final round

Art. 13 - Semi-Final Round

- a. The result of the written Memorials will be taken into account in assessing the final scores of the Semi-Final Round.
- b. The winning team of Semi-Final Rounds will proceed to the Final Round. The winning team is the highest scoring team of the Semi-Final Round that team participated in. In the event of a tie, the winning team will be determined based on the teams' overall memorial scores and further evaluation by the judges following which the decision shall be final.
- c. The team which will argue as Applicant or Respondent shall be determined by a coin toss. The winner of the coin toss shall be given the opportunity to choose their side.

d. The team having higher score against its opposing team in the Semi-Final Round shall be considered as the winning team in that round.

e. The winning team from the respective Semi-Final Round shall then advance to the Final Round.

Art. 14 - Final Round

a. The result of the written Memorials will be taken into account in assessing the final scores of the Final Round.

b. The team which will argue as Applicant or Respondent shall be determined by a coin toss. The winner of the coin toss shall be given the opportunity to choose their side.

c. After tallying the results, the team with the top score will be announced by the Secretariat as the overall champion of the Competition.

d. The team winning the Final Round will be the winner of the Competition, If the two teams have a tie, the team with the highest total score in the written phase of the Preliminary-Round will proceed to the overall champion.
