

UNWANTED WITNESS
PRIVACY MOOT
COURT COMPETITION
Dare . Participate . Win

UW PRIVACY MOOT COURT COMPETITION BOOT CAMP ORAL PRESENTATION - 10 MAY, 2024

Facilitator:

Lilian Mahiri-Zaja, ICJ-Kenya

Tips for the Mooters:

Preparation:

Mental and physical preparedness is crucial. Dress professionally and exude confidence.

Address to the Court:

Maintain proper decorum and respect in your address.

Language:

Use simple, grammatically correct language to communicate effectively.

Time Management:

Allocate time wisely. Organize your team to ensure a smooth opening address and presentation.

Presentation Structure:

Ensure each presenter supports the opening address with compelling arguments and relevant authorities.

Speaking Style:

Speak clearly, precisely, and to the point. Avoid excessive animation.

Respect:

Maintain respectful and cordial language, even in contentious situations.

Teamwork:

Demonstrate a cohesive team dynamic where each member understands their role in winning the case.

Departing from Written Submissions:

It's permissible to depart from written submissions to clarify points or respond to the Court's queries.

Building Confidence:

Good preparation and peer review are essential. Work closely with your team to refine submissions and boost confidence.

Organised by:

In Collaboration with:

