Mooters Code of Conduct 2026

Welcome to the Unwanted Privacy Moot Court Competition 2026. As a participant, you are expected to adhere to the following code of conduct:

Professionalism: All participants are expected to act in a professional and courteous manner towards their colleagues, judges, and organizers.

Respect: All participants are expected to respect the views and opinions of others, regardless of their background or beliefs. Any form of discrimination or harassment will not be tolerated.

Confidentiality: All information shared during the competition, including case materials and participant information, must be kept confidential and not disclosed to third parties without the express permission of the organizers.

Academic integrity: All submissions and presentations must be original and the work of the participants. Plagiarism, cheating, or other forms of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated.

Preparation: Participants must be fully prepared for each round of the competition and must abide by the time limits and rules set forth by the judges.

Cooperation: Participants are encouraged to work cooperatively with their teammates, and to assist other teams where possible. Any attempt to undermine or sabotage other teams is strictly prohibited.

Decorum: Participants must dress in a professional and appropriate manner for all rounds of the competition.

Time management: Participants must be punctual and adhere to the time schedule for the competition. Any delay in attendance or submission may result in disqualification.

Compliance: Participants must comply with all rules and regulations set forth by the organizers of the competition.

Sportsmanship: Participants must exhibit good sportsmanship at all times and accept the decision of the judges with grace, regardless of the outcome.

By participating in the Unwanted Privacy Moot Court Competition 2026, you agree to abide by this code of conduct. Failure to do so may result in disqualification or other disciplinary action.

We hope that you find the Unwanted Privacy Moot Court Competition to be an enjoyable and rewarding experience. Good luck and have fun!
